First Response Lines

A good start can change the whole conversation.

Read the response lines below. You will choose one to start your conversation, then improve it.

A

"I can help you look into this. Let me check what options are available."

B

"I understand this is important to you. Let's take a closer look at what happened."

C

"I can see why you're following up. Let me review the information we have so far."

D

"Let's work through this together and find the best next step."

